

Christchurch mosque shootings

50 killed in the two attacks

- Abdukadir Elmi

70 years old

The 70-year-old father of four from Somalia was killed at the Al Noor mosque.

- Abdul Fattah Qasem

60 years old

Abdul Fattah Qasem Ibrahim Qasem was the former secretary of the Muslim Association of Canterbury was a respected elder in the Muslim community and helped with interpretation for refugees and migrants from the Middle East.

- Ahmed Abdel Ghani

68 years old

His death was confirmed by the Egyptian migration ministry.

- Ali Elmadani

66 years old

The retired engineer was killed while praying, his wife told the New Zealand Herald.

- Amjad Hamid

57 years old

The Palestinian doctor's family believe he was killed in the attack at the mosque where he prayed every Friday.

- Ansi Alibava

24 years old

Ansi Alibava was at the mosque with her husband Ponnath Abdul Nazer, who worked in a local supermarket.

- Ashraf Ali

58 years old

Ashraf Ali, from Fiji, had gone to the Al Noor mosque with his brother, Ramzan. Ramzan Ali said he managed to hide from the gunman, but his brother did not escape.

- Ashraf Al-Masri

Ashraf Al-Masri was one of four Egyptian victims named by the Egyptian government.

- Ashraf Morsi

54 years old

The father of two leaves behind a wife and two children. They are accompanying their husband and father's body back to Egypt for burial.

- Asif Vora

56 years old

Asif Vora was killed at the Al Noor mosque alongside his son Ramiz.

- Atta Elayyan

33 years old

Atta Elayyan was the goalkeeper for New Zealand's futsal (a form of five-a-side football) team and chief executive of technology consultancy and app developer LWA Solutions, which he founded in 2010.

- Daoud Nabi

71 years old

Daoud Nabi was born in Afghanistan, but moved his family to New Zealand in the 1980s to escape the Soviet invasion.

- Farhaj Ahsan

30 years old

Farhaj Ahsan moved to New Zealand from Hyderabad in India 10 years ago and worked as an electrical engineer.

- Ghulam Husain

66 years old

Ghulam Husain grew up in Karachi, Pakistan, and worked for Pakistan Airlines until his retirement.

- Hafiz Musa Vali Patel

59 years old

Hafiz Patel, 59, was critically injured in the attack and rushed to hospital, but he died.

- Hamza Mustafa

16 years old

Sixteen-year-old Hamza was shot as he prayed alongside his father.

- Haroon Mehmood

40 years old

Mr Mehmood moved to New Zealand nearly five years ago from Pakistan, with his wife and two children, to study for a PhD in biochemistry.

- Hosne Ahmed

44 years old

Hosne Ahmed, 44, was in the women's area of the Al Noor mosque when the attack started.

- Hussain al-Umari

35 years old

Hussain al-Umari, 35, died while challenging the gunman, his family told the BBC. He was, they said, a "hero".

- Hussein Moustafa

70 years old

Egyptian Hussein Moustafa had prayed in the same corner of the Al Noor mosque since the family moved to Christchurch 20 years ago, local media reported.

- Junaid Kara/Ismail

36 years old

Junaid was born to Indian parents and ran a corner shop in Christchurch.

- Kamel Mohamad Kamel Darweesh

39 years old

Kamel Darweesh migrated to New Zealand from Jordan about six months ago to join his older brother.

- Karam Bibi

63 years old

Karam Bibi was killed with her husband Ghulam Husain and son Zeeshan Raza at the Linwood Islamic Centre.

- Khaled Mustafa

44 years old

Khaled Mustafa died in hospital after being shot at the Al Noor mosque - his teenage son Hamza was also killed.

- Linda Armstrong

65 years old

Linda was New Zealand-born, growing up in Auckland. She had moved to Christchurch to be closer to her family.

- Maheboob Khokhar

65 years old

Maheboob Khokhar was a retired manager of a local power utility in Gujarat, India. He was visiting New Zealand for the first time with his wife to see their son, who had left India in 2010.

- Matiullah Safi

55 years old

Matiullah Safi had been living in New Zealand for about nine years, working in various jobs, according to local media reports.

- Mohammed Imran Khan

47 years old

Mr Khan emigrated to New Zealand from India and started a restaurant in Christchurch.

- Omar Faruk

36 years old

The Bangladeshi national was working as a welder in New Zealand. His wife, Sanjida Zaman Neha, had stayed in Bangladesh and is pregnant.

- Mohsen Mohammed Al Harbi

63 years old

Mr al-Harbi had lived in New Zealand for 25 years, but was originally from Saudi Arabia. He worked in water desalination technology.

- Mojammel Hoq

30 years old

Mr Hoq had been in Christchurch for about two years as a dental student, and was a regular at the Al Noor mosque in Deans Avenue.

- Mounir Suleiman

68 years old

Mounir Suleiman was an Egyptian engineer who converted from Christianity to Islam in the mid-1990s.

- Mucad Ibrahim

3 years old

Three-year-old Mucad is the youngest victim identified. He was visiting the mosque with his brother, Abdi, and their father, both of whom survived the attack.

- Lilik Abdul Hamid

58 years old

Lilik Abdul Hamid, also known as Muhammad Abdul Hamid, moved to Christchurch from Jakarta with his wife in 2003.

- Abdus Samad

66 years old

Abdus Samad, 66, lectured at Christchurch's Lincoln University (where he studied for a PhD in the 1980s) and sometimes led prayers at the Al Noor mosque.

- Musa Nur Awale

77 years old

Musa Nur Awale was originally from Somalia.

- Naeem Rashid

50 years old

Naeem Rashid, 50, was originally from Abbottabad in Pakistan. He was a teacher in Christchurch. His eldest son Talha, 21, also died in the attack.

- Osama Adnan Abu Kweik

37 years old

Osama Adnan Abu Kweik, whose family are of Palestinian origin, grew up in Egypt.

- Ozair Kadir

25 years old

Ozair Kadir was born in Saudi Arabia to Indian parents with roots in Hyderabad.

- Ramiz Vora

28 years old

Ramiz Vora was killed with his father Asif in the Al Noor attack.

- Sayyad Milne

14 years old

Sayyad Milne, 14, was described by his father as "an inspiration".

- Sohail Shahid

40 years old

Sohail Shahid moved from Pakistan to New Zealand two years ago in search of a better future.

- Syed Areeb Ahmed

27 years old

Syed Areeb Ahmed moved to New Zealand from Karachi in Pakistan about 18 months ago.

- Syed Jahandad Ali

34 years old

Mr Ali's death was confirmed by Pakistan's foreign ministry.

- Talha Rashid

21 years old

Talha Rashid was the eldest son of Naeem Rashid, who was also killed in the attack.

- Tariq Omar

24 years old

Mr Omar was a former student at Cashmere High in Christchurch.

- Zakaria Bhuiya

33 years old

Mr Bhuiya had taken a day off to celebrate his 33rd birthday at the mosque.

- Zeeshan Raza

38 years old

Zeeshan Raza was the only son of Ghulam Husain and Karam Bibi, who were also killed in the attack.

- Muhammad Haziq bin Mohd Tarmizi

17 years old

Malaysian Muhammad Haziq bin Mohd Tarmizi was praying at the Al Noor mosque with his family when the attack took place.

- Mohamad Moosi Mohamedhosen

54 years old

Mohamad Moosid Mohamedhosen, 54, who was born in Mauritius and came from the town of Vacoas.

List supplied by the BBC.